President's Letter SEPTEMBER 2024

DEAR FELLOW MEMBERS,

September is a time when we all start to refocus, whether that means getting back into the routine after summer vacations, preparing for the final quarter of the year, or simply enjoying the beautiful late-summer days in our Club's unique setting.

Our members have truly made the most of the season. Our patios have been bustling with lively conversation, and it has been a pleasure to see so many of you enjoying the Club's amenities with friends and family. I am especially proud of our staff, who have worked tirelessly to ensure every event and service has met the standards we all expect.

Last month, my wife Alie and I celebrated our 10th anniversary together with a bespoke dining experience at the Club. Everything was beautifully arranged, from the personalized menu and wines to the elegant setting. If you're planning a special occasion, consider your Club the ideal venue. Our team is here to help you create unforgettable memories, just as they did for us. Contact catering@tcclub.com to get the conversation started.

Over the last month, we have been working with our parking provider to alleviate the frustrating issues that the gated exit caused over the long term. We are happy to have moved to a smoother entry and exit system with no gates, but we have also heard our members dissatisfaction with the need to register their vehicles at all times, so the system will be enhanced with license plate recognition shortly. This will allow TCC members to register one primary vehicle, which will then be recognized and only billed for parking between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. TCC staff will reach out to all members for primary vehicle license plate details. Members with multiple vehicles will need to register those alternate license plates at Member Services or the self-serve parking kiosk each time.

Mink Chocolate Café has been a delightful new addition to our offerings. Feedback from members has been overwhelmingly positive, so if you haven't already, stop by and try the award-winning chocolate. Our culinary team is also upgrading some of the baked goods, so pop down for a croissant with your latte or mocha.

Don't miss Duelling Pianos on Saturday, September 21. If you haven't been before, this high-energy entertainment experience features two charismatic and talented pianists playing songs requested by the audience and engaging in some friendly competition and banter. Sit back and enjoy this musical back-and-forth, or get up and dance to everything from classic hits to contemporary pop.

Save the date – or better yet, secure your tickets now – for our annual gala. On Saturday, November 2, step Beyond the Shadows and embrace the thrill of the unknown. Keep your wits about you as you explore the Club as you've never seen it before, transformed into a haunted manor with a surprise at every turn. As many of you know, our culinary and beverage team pulls out all the stops for this extraordinary event, so be ready to indulge and be seduced. Don't miss the opportunity to access early bird pricing until Friday, September 20.

As always, it's your participation and enthusiasm that make our Club such a special place. Whether you're attending an event, hosting a gathering, or simply enjoying a quiet meal with a view, your presence enriches our community. I look forward to seeing you around the Club this month and sharing in the experiences that make TCC so extraordinary.

Here's to a fantastic September and to all the exciting moments ahead.

Warm regards,

Nate Kube
Terminal City Club President

Tourists, Travellers, and TikTokers

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10
6 – 9 p.m.

*Complimentary event with the purchase of dinner à la carte.
Late cancellation fees will apply.*

In a 2023 The New Yorker article, Agnes Callard invokes heavyweights like Socrates, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Fernando Pessoa, and others to argue against travel. She questions the idea that travel can genuinely transform one's self or lead to self-discovery, suggesting instead that it may often reinforce pre-existing attitudes and prejudices. An award-winning columnist and avid traveller, Daphne Bramham will argue the merits of travel done right. But Daphne agrees with Callard that some people shouldn't travel. There's a wide swath of tourists and TikTokers who would be better off – and possibly even happier – if they went to Las Vegas, ate at McDonald's and spent the money they save on miniature Eiffel Towers and Mona Lisa posters.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

The Future of Vancouver's Central Waterfront

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26
6 – 9 p.m.

*Complimentary event with the purchase of dinner à la carte.
Late cancellation fees will apply.*

For decades, downtown Vancouver's Central Waterfront – from Canada Place in the west to Crab Park in the east – has languished, even as other parts of the city's urban waterfront have been reimagined, redeveloped and opened up to public access. Why? The reasons are many, and complicated. But essentially it comes down to lack of political will to drive change. Recent initiatives by various stakeholders and interest groups have yielded tantalizing visions of what the future might hold for this strategic section of our city's waterfront. Urban planner Lance Berelowitz will lead a discussion on the topic.

Geek Chic Wines for the Adventure Seeker

❶ ANTECH BLANQUETTE DE LIMOUX RESERVE EXTRA BRUT 2021 LIMOUX, FRANCE $59

Blanquette de Limoux is likely the world's oldest sparkling wine, with legend dating its creation to 1531. Made from the white grape called mauzac, this dry, flavourful sparkler is bottle-fermented just like champagne. Aged for 30 months and made by a six-generation family, it's toasty and lively.

❷ BERMEJOS MALVASIA VOLCANICA 2021 CANARY ISLANDS, SPAIN 2021 $62

Evolving in isolation in the harsh volcanic terroir of Lanzarote, this aromatic white features the rare grape malvasia volcanica. Floral aromas, subtle peach and mango, with a dry, intensely mineral finish.

❸ ARTEMIS KARAMOLEGOS PYRITIS MEGA CUVÉE ASSYRTIKO 2020 SANTORINI, GREECE $119

Simply put, this bottle of celebrated pink is a showstopper. There are just 18 estates in Provence with 'cru' status (meaning the best of the best) and this is one of them. Rimauresq takes its name from the Real Mauresque, the river that flows through the organically farmed vineyards. A grenache-centred blend, this supremely fresh rosé benefits from the cooling mistral winds and the shade of looming limestone mountains. Dry, stony, intense and worthy of spot prawns or charcuterie.

❹ RAÚL PÉREZ LOS ARROTOS DEL PENDÓN 2018 BIERZO, SPAIN $83

Made by one of the greatest wine minds alive, Raúl Pérez discovered a high altitude plot of 110 yearold prieto pecudo vines, native to northern Spain. With meaty, smoky and violet aromas and blackcurrant fruit, it is at once opulent and delicate.

❺ GIUSTI AUGUSTO RECANTINA AUGUSTO 2015 VENETO, ITALY $70

Smooth and intense, this full-bodied wine is showing the leather and cedar that comes with 9 years of age. The rare Recantina is native to the Veneto in northeastern Italy has both high acid and high tannin levels. Canadian construction magnate Joe Giusti has been the prime champion of recantina.

Member of the Month

Ernest Yee

While working on his master's degree in political science, with a focus on international relations, at the University of British Columbia, Ernest Yee was appointed as a youth rep on the executive committee and finance committee of the World Alliance of YMCAs, headquartered in Geneva, Switzerland. It was through that volunteer work that he was first exposed to international finance.

"I learned a lot on that finance committee in Geneva. It's what got me interested in banking."

After graduation, Ernest worked in public relations. He was hired by HSBC in 1995 as manager of public affairs in Canada and eventually became vice-president of corporate affairs, and a member of the Global Communications Executive Committee, which was responsible for overseeing external and internal communications of the HSBC Group in over 80 countries.

Ernest managed media relations, government relations, and charitable donations and sponsorships at HSBC for 18 years. One of the high points of his career came in 1997, when the bank's global head office in the U.K. sent him to Hong Kong to deal with international media during the handover of the city from the United Kingdom to the People's Republic of China. Another high point was establishing HSBC scholarships and bursaries at universities across Canada.

Ernest is currently senior advisor, partnerships at Mitacs, a national not-for-profit organization supporting innovation research and development throughout Canada. His focus is on government relations.

"Mitacs helps companies and not-for-profit groups solve their innovation challenges by connecting them to top post-secondary talent. At the same time, Mitacs internships provide post-secondary students with valuable applied research experience. The host company pays only half the cost of the internship, while Mitacs pays the other half using federal and provincial funds."

Outside of work, Ernest maintains a busy schedule volunteering. "I am a big believer of giving back to the community."

Today, Ernest volunteers as chair of the UBC Foundation, and as a member of the university's Campaign Circle. "The goals of the campaign are to raise $3 billion over five years, and to double the engagement of UBC alumni ... Imagine a world where everyone can access a university education regardless of their financial situation. I grew up in East Vancouver, and I am the first in my immediate family to get a university education. That education had an enormous impact on my life, and I hope to help others have the same opportunity."

Ernest's extensive volunteer resume also includes serving on the Boards of Arts Umbrella, the UBC Alumni Association, and nine years on the Board of the Jack Webster Foundation for excellence in B.C. journalism — four years as co-chair.

Ernest has also served on the Board of Canada Lands Company and on the Granville Island Trust.

Ernest joined the Terminal City Club more than 15 years ago on the recommendation of colleagues at HSBC.

"I like the wine events organized by D.J. Kearney. They're excellent. I attend wine masterclasses, wine-pairing dinners, and monthly tastings. My interest in learning more about wine really grew during Covid when there wasn't a lot to do during the lockdown. DJ was streaming seminars a couple days a week and I gained a new hobby."

Ernest and his wife, Ling, who is a spousal member of the Club, like to book the Dr. Ignatius Cheung Room in the Grill. "It's a perfect place for a private business dinner or a small get-together with friends or family."

"I've also booked large events for Mitacs and UBC. The TCC staff does an amazing job organizing and delivering these special occasions."

When he's not working, volunteering, or attending TCC social events, Ernest loves to travel. "My favourite spots are the French Riviera, Provence and Burgundy." 🍷
